

ASPIRING
DRAG
PERFORMER

QUINN

AGE	23
PRONOUNS	They/them
JOB	Full-time grad student, part-time substance abuse counselor
EDUCATION	BA Social Work
LOCATION	Capitol Hill, Seattle
COMMUNITY	LGBTQ+, Drag

MOTIVATIONS

PUBLICITY +
EQUALITY +
COMMUNITY

DAILY GOALS

- > Spend time in open, safe places to express themselves
- > Gain inspiration from other body confident individuals
- > Educate others about LGBTQ+ history

DRAG GOALS

- > Build the confidence to begin performing on stage
- > Improve makeup and outfit crafting
- > Make the drag community more accessible to people of all backgrounds and abilities

PAIN POINTS

- > Struggles with time management
- > Lack of resources and finances when it comes to outfitting

SOCIAL MEDIA

Instagram: for interacting with drag performers

Facebook: for finding drag events

A TYPICAL SATURDAY

9 AM Wakes up and checks phone. Looks at Facebook drag event and texts friends who are going.

10 AM Gets ready for their four hour work shift. If they're rushed, they throw on a gender neutral outfit. If they have time, they'll think about how they want to express themselves.

3 PM Goes back home and starts on school work.

6 PM Stops school work and plans drag event outfit. Surfs social media for inspiration, checking drag queen accounts. Video calls friends to chat about outfits.

7 PM Running short on time. Begins frantically pulling outfits from the closet. Does a quick makeup look.

8:30 PM Heads to show. Compliments friends' outfits and gets energized.

9 PM Drag show begins. After it's done, they hope to get contact information from the drag performers.